Former German Village School Open as Poll for Primary Election

(Columbus) The Franklin County Board of Elections reminds voters Beck Street Elementary School, a long time polling place located at 387 Beck Street in German Village, will be open for voting for Franklin County's primary election on May 5 even though the school has closed under a consolidation program.

One thousand, one hundred fifty five voters from Columbus Ward 8, precinct D, are registered to vote at this polling location.

Eight hundred fifty five Franklin County precincts will be open for voting from 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. on Election Day. Registered voters may find their polling place by entering their address online at <http://vote.franklincountyohio.gov> or by calling the board of elections at (614) 462-3100.

Some 76,000 voters, approximately nine percent of those registered in Franklin County, are expected to cast a ballot for the primary. A levy for metro parks will be on ballots countywide. School levies and other spending issues will be on some local ballots. Voters in Hilliard and Reynoldsburg will cast ballots for municipal offices as well.
