General Election Ballot Certified

(Columbus) The Franklin County Board of Elections certified the remainder of the Nov. 4 general election ballot today to place one countywide issue and a few dozen local issues on the ballot with candidates for federal, state and local offices certified earlier this year.

All ballots will list a levy for Franklin County Children's Services.

Columbus voters will see proposed amendments to the city charter dealing with elections, office holders and city administration.

Three school districts-Gahanna Jefferson, Grandview Heights and New Albany-Plain Local-will have levies.

Municipal tax issues will be on the ballot in the Villages of Minerva Park and Obetz and in the cities of Upper Arlington and Westerville.

There will be levies for fire service in Brown, Franklin, Jackson, Jefferson and Plain Townships.

Hamilton, Pleasant and Prairie Townships will ask voters to approve energy aggregation plans.

Liquor options will appear on local ballots in Columbus, Groveport, Hilliard and Westerville.

The complete list of general election candidates and issues is posted on our Web site at <http://vote.franklincountyohio.gov>

Voters must be registered by Oct. 6 to be eligible for this election.
