Three Voting Locations Changing for Upper Arlington Recall Election

(Columbus) The City of Upper Arlington will have fourteen voting locations open for the Aug. 23 election to recall members of city council. Two are new locations just for this election while a third move will be permanent.

- Voters in U.A. precinct 6-B are moving from the Upper Arlington Fire House Recreation Station at 4737 Coach Road to Burbank Elementary at 4770 Burbank Drive. This is a permanent move.
- Voters in U.A. precincts 1-B and 1-D are moving from Holy Trinity Lutheran Church at 2001 Northwest Boulevard to Barrington Elementary at 1780 Barrington Road. This is a temporary move. These voters will return to Holy Trinity for the Nov. 8 General Election.
- Voters in U.A. precinct 5-C are moving for this election only from Northwest Christian Church at 1340 Fishinger Road to Bryce Eck Activities Center at 3880 Reed Road. They'll return to Northwest Christian for voting in November.

The changes involve 3,265 of some 27,000 voters eligible for this election. Those with new locations have been notified by a recent board of elections mailing.

Upper Arlington polling locations will be open on Election Day from 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Voters can confirm the location of their polling place on our Website .

Early voting for the recall election will continue through Aug. 22. Voters have the option of requesting an absentee ballot by mail or voting early at our offices located at 1700 Morse Road, Columbus.
