Registration Deadline Today General Election

(Columbus) The Franklin County Board of Elections reminds voters this the final day to register for the Nov. 8, 2011 general election.

The board of elections, located at 280 East Broad Street, Columbus, will be open until 9 p.m. for registration and in-person absentee voting. It is possible to register and vote on the same day until the deadline or register by mail. Mailings must be postmarked by Oct. 11.

Registration forms are available online at <http://vote.franklincountyohio.gov>, and at the following locations:

- Franklin County Treasurer's office
- Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles offices
- Ohio Secretary of State office
- Public high schools and vocational schools
- Public libraries
- Designated agencies including colleges and universities providing public assistance and disability programs

Applicants registering in person must provide their Ohio driver's license number or the last four digits from their Social Security Number. If you register by mail and do not provide these numbers, you must include a copy of a document showing your current name and address. Acceptable forms include photo identification, military identification, utility bill, pay stub or any government document other than a document from the board of elections.

Registration is open to U. S. citizens who live in Franklin County and will be at least 18 years old on or before Election Day.
