General Election Tomorrow

(Columbus) More than 750,000 voters are registered for tomorrow's general election in Franklin County. Polls will be open from 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

All Franklin County ballots will list three statewide issues, candidates for Municipal Court Judge, Municipal Court Clerk and a levy for the Board of Developmental Disabilities. Local ballots will show candidates for municipal offices and school board. Voters also will decide local issues including levies for safety forces, schools, libraries, parks, charter amendments, liquor options and a proposal to annex the City of Worthington and the Village of Riverlea.

Identification is required to vote a regular ballot tomorrow. Acceptable forms include an Ohio driver's license or other documents such as a utility bill or pay stub with the voter's current name and address. Those without proper identification may cast a provisional ballot by providing the last four digits of their Social Security number.

Over 88,000 voters have requested absentee ballots for this election. Those who have yet to return their ballot must have it postmarked by today or delivered in person to the board of elections by 7:30 p.m. tomorrow to count in this election. Absentee ballots will not be accepted at local polling places on Election Day.

Voters are encouraged to visit our Web site <http://vote.franklincountyohio.gov> to find their polling location and see a copy of their sample ballot. Election results will be posted on the site after the polls close tomorrow night and will be updated throughout the evening.
