Registration Ends Tonight for Primary

(Columbus) Registration for the May 7 primary election ends tonight. The Franklin County Board of Elections will remain open until 9:00 p.m. for voters to register or deliver their completed registration forms. Registrations by mail are also acceptable if they are postmarked by today.

Registration forms are available at the board of elections, on our Web site <http://vote.franklincountyohio.gov> and at the following locations:

- Franklin County Treasurer's Office
- Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicle Offices
- Ohio Secretary of State's Office
- Public high schools or vocational schools
- Designated agencies including colleges and universities providing public assistance and disability programs

Registrants will need to provide their Ohio driver license number or the last four digits of their Social Security number if they register in person. Those who register by mail and do not provide either their driver license or Social Security number will need to provide one of the following: a copy of their photo identification, utility bill, bank statement, pay stub or a government document other than one from the board of elections.

Registration is open to U.S. citizens who live in Franklin County and who will be 18 or older by the Nov. 5 general election. Voters as young as 17 may register and vote for candidates, but not issues in the primary.
