Special Election Registration Deadline Next Monday at 9:00 P.M.

(Columbus) Franklin County voters in the Village of Minerva Park and Madison-Plains Local School District have until Monday, July 10, to register for the Aug. 8 special election.

Two issues will appear on local ballots. Voters in Minerva Park will decide whether to renew an existing tax levy for an additional five years to pay for general expenses in the village. Voters in the Madison-Plains Local School District will vote on an additional tax levy with the purpose of avoiding an operating deficit.

Absentee voting begins Tuesday, July 11. Voters may apply for ballots by mail online at www.vote.franklincountyohio.gov or by calling the board of elections at (614) 525-3100. In-person early voting will be held at the board of elections located at 1700 Morse Road at the following times:

- Tuesday, July 11 through Friday, July 28 from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. weekdays.
- Monday, July 31 through Friday, August 4 from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. weekdays.
- Saturday, August 5 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
- Sunday, August 6 from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- Monday, August 7 from 8:00a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

To date there are 1,186 registered voters in Minerva Park and Madison-Plains Local for this election. The board of elections will be open for registration this upcoming Monday until 9:00 p.m.
