Franklin Co. Announces Unofficial Primary Election Returns

(Columbus) Unofficial returns show 20.25% percent or 30,949 of 152,842 eligible voters casting ballots in Tuesday's primary election in Franklin County.

The totals include 2,859 absentee ballots cast in person or by mail and received at the board by 7:30 p.m. on election night. There were 279 provisional ballots cast. The eligibility of those voters must be verified before their ballots are included in the official canvass.

Unofficial results are posted online at <http://vote.franklincountyohio.gov>. Separate reports are available online showing results for Franklin County precincts alone and Franklin County precincts with a results from overlapping counties included.

The board of elections must certify results of the election by May 24.
